

Historical and philosophical perspectives on the concept of organism.

Organised by Charles Wolfe (University of Sydney) and Philippe Huneman (IHPST, Paris)

Saturday, December 13

Location : IHPST, 13 rue du Four, 75006 Paris, Floor 2

9h30. Denis Walsh. University of Toronto.

*Reviving organism – teleology and emergence after the Evo-Devo challenges to neo-darwinism**

10.45. John Symons. University of Texas at El Paso.

Moore on organisms and relations

11.15. Matteo Mossio. IHPST, Paris.

*Functions, self-organisation and the origin of organisms.**

12. Tim Lewens. Cambridge University

*Organisms and functions : the projectivist account.**

12.45 Lunch

14H30. Laura Nuno de la Rosa Garcia. Universidad Complutense, Madrid/ Université Paris I Sorbonne

*The development of organismal form and the evolution of organismicity.**

15.15. Philippe Huneman. IHPST, Paris.

The concept of organisms : from its constitution to its evolutionary meaning

16.15. Johannes Martens. IHPST, Paris

*The causal role of organisms and the evolutionary transitions.**

17. Alexandre Métraux (MPIWG, Berlin).

Some remarks on intelligent organisms

17.45. Dan Nicholson (Egenis, Exeter)

Organisms and machines

Location : IHPST, 13 rue du Four, 75006 Paris, Floor 2 Tel.33 1 43 54 60 36 Web : www-ihpst.univ-paris1.fr